

Stanley Korshak

STANLEY KORSHAK IS NO MERE STORE. It is a premier destination where the rich and famous peruse the finest in men's and women's apparel, cosmetics, handbags, jewelry, and bridal gowns. Can't spare shop 'n' drop time? Stanley Korshak will deploy associates to your home or hotel to sculpt a wardrobe around your week's appointments and events, pack you for vacations, even rework your closets. 500 Crescent Court, Suite 100, 214.871.3600.

Andreas Beckmann

BOOTMAKING IS A DYING ART. But it thrives at Andreas Beckmann, home to some of the world's finest handcrafted boots, belts, and bags in plush leathers and exotic skins such as shark, stingray, ostrich, alligator, and teju lizard. Customize your kicks with personalized designs, colors, and skin combinations. The boutique also features fine jewelry by master jeweler Bill Holman. 4212 Oak Lawn Ave., 214.520.3415.

Texas Polo, Inc.

FOUNDED IN 1975 BY VINCENT MEYER—who perfected the plastic polo ball using technology he developed for the first rustproof fertilizer spreader—Texas Polo has earned an international reputation as a leading supplier of polo gear, including what is considered the world's finest polo saddle. Call for an appointment. 703 McKinney Ave., Suite 100, 214.720.0233.

Nasher Sculpture Center

Opened in 2003, the Nasher Sculpture Center's collection represents a century of fine sculpture that, prior to its 2003 home, was exhibited globally. While visiting Dallas, enjoy Nasher's First Saturday Night's in the city, July 2 and August 6. Visitors may also delight in The Mansion on Turtle Creek's Chef Dean Fearing's and Executive Director Eric Baker's culinary contributions to Café Mansion, offering lunch from 11:00-3:00 p.m. and a full dinner menu on Thursdays. 2001 Flora Street; 214.242.5100 or www.nashersculpturecenter.org.
